JOHN ALLEN
AND PHŒBE DEUEL,

OF CAMBRIDGE AND PERU, N. Y.

Tell these things to your children and teach them to tell their children, so that the memory of their Ancestors may be preserved and revered, and their virtues emulated.

PRELIMINARY EDITION,
FOR PRIVATE CIRCULATION.

CHAS. J. NORTH, BUFFALO, N. Y.

1897.

PREFATORY.

THIS book shows the children and grandchildren so far as they have been found. It is hoped that every one will help me in tracing up those who are still unknown, as well as in tending in records of the later generations, so that when I have discovered the antecedents of John Allen, a permanent edition may be published, the ultimate expense of which will probably be several hundred dollars.

In the true spirit of kinship, every one should be interested in gathering the records as well as associated in the expense. I would therefore be very glad, if each into whose hands this may come will send me some contribution, within their means, so that each may feel that they possess in a degree, an ownership in the book, even as they fill a place in its pages.

I send a copy to each one whose address is known, and will send one to each who may apply, until the supply is exhausted.

In arranging for the permanent edition, it is desirable that something of the occupation, religious tendencies and public offices held, should be given, and as exactly as possible, the various places of residence, with dates of settlement and removals.

I shall be pleased, meantime, to give anyone any information I may have, of their respective lines. Chas. J. North
